"An apple A day keeps the Warts a way ...." Right, Cher?

Along with the new year came Freshman,

AGAPE . . . . . & Solah

Mama Reichard ~ her girls ~ (middle woman) Strikes again.

We learned

New Year in September

to expect just about from Agape!!

anything

Sloppy, gunky initiation failed. but .... formal induction came through along with Secret Sisters, tears & nostalgia.

"Oh, so you're the sneaky one!!!"

"Marlowe, didn't you get any from Steve tonight?"

"what a way to end a evening?"

Homecoming 1973 brought rain, Alumni, crowds, noise +
Sariah - Solahs + Agapes decorating the commons.

Halloween came complete with ghosts, gobblins, & a haunted house. Sariah had its Annual Trick-or-Treating with ourselves and Selah, and our own Halloween party.

"Hum.... wonder what Karen's got in her glass?"

We had our day - - - - Smack

A brand new Semester with lots of surprises, including a new H.P.

"Let's clean it up, Marlene!"

Surprise!!!

Oh what a cutie?!?

St. Valentines Day

"oh, how beautiful is love"...

There is about SPRING

a gladness

that thrills the soul and lifts

it up into the regions of SPIRITUAL SUNSHINE.

Spring finally arrived. We were beginning to wonder after that surprise Spring!

March 10th was Sariah's big night out. "Tea House of the Winter Moon" was held in the basement of the Library. Following the Formal we had a campfire in the Faculty Lounge.

The fountain in the garden welcomed each couple.

"Hey, ya know what I heard the other night?"

"Where did ~~everyone~~ everyone go?"

"To the food... where else"

It was a Japanese function but our entertainment was country western.

what are they up to?

Margy, one of our Salah sisters, helped at the refreshment table.

Looks like everyone's having a great time!

Let's clean it up Chris & ← Milce. Your Big Sister is watching You!

whats the big deal?"

We had lots of slow music to dance to. Wonder who picked it out —— Sandy ?? and Nancy ?? !!

THE BUDDAH WATCHES ON

"May I take your order?"

"SMILE"

A BUDDAH IN THE LIBRARY ?

Harv and Beau are at it again !

Hiya, what a grip, Steve!

"A wish upon a flaming candle"

Hey, hey, look at that Nancy and Steve!!

Soon April came and so did the Easter Bunny. We had Secret Sisters with ~~Sola~~ Solah and had an Easter Egg hunt at 11:00pm.

Hi! I'm your new sis!

Won't you help me, so I can stay here with all my friends?

Give contributions to your Chaplains. We need $12 to keep her.

Sariah Love,
Nada

PERSONAL HISTORY

Nada's family background is one of extreme poverty and privation. Although both her parents are living, their circumstances are pitiful. They live in deplorable conditions and although the father has work as a garbage collector his earnings are meagre. The mother tries hard to make ends meet but it is still a struggle. The parents brought the child to us, so that she would receive proper nourishing food and a good education. Your kind sponsorship will be a great delight to this needy little girl.

LETTERS FROM NADA

Dear Sponsor

Thank you very much for the money you send me, I was verry happy and I bought with the money Leilas woollen balls to make a nice jersey.

I am doing fine at school and looking forward for the exams.

God be with you.

I REMEMBER

Remember the good ole days when we mixed the vodka with the punch, Cindy
Remember the good ole days when we waited for each other at lunch?

Remember the good ole days when we'd go sledding down the hill, over the bumps and across the lake, it was such a thrill! Carrie

Remember the good ole days when we lived at the end of the hall, and smeared the shaving cream on the mirrors in the hall? Robert Tonny-Shame on you! And everybody that it was Marsha Morgan

Remember when we'd play cards all nite, then tried to cram for tests--man, what a bite! Golf & Harry Sherry, etc

Remember that grand ole pop machine that gave us 2 for 1 and our nickel back, and I bet you won't forget the popcorn and the Fritos and the FAT!

Remember the nite with all the E'S, and me crying out "More Noxzema please!" Marlowe
Remember Sariah's functions and the flaming decorations! setters

But most of all--do you remember the struggles, and the laughter, and the tears? Well I do, and I hope I remember Sariah for many, many years.

Love to all who remember these things, and to those who will bring about new memories.

Would Have Sent You An Easter Egg But

by Ogden Nash

I asked a rabbit that I knew
To lay an Easter egg for you
The air was filled with chilly frost
The rabbit said to me, "Get lost!"
The egg routine is for the funnies
Us rabbits just have little bunnies.
This information spoiled my day,
But Happy Easter anyway.

Rabbits do not Lay Easter Eggs!

Reception
following ceremony

Dear Sariah sisters,

I would like to invite you all to my wedding, September 1st, at the R.L.D.S. Blue Ridge Church, Blue Ridge Boulevard and Sheley Road Independence, at 7:30 pm.

The reason I am writing this now, is because when I send out my invitations, no one will be here. You wouldn't find out about my wedding until around the 31st of August, when you get here, and that's kind of short notice I'd say.

I'd like to have everyone of you come and share with Rowland and I.

Sariah love,

Barbie Smith

The Littlest Angel

Light on Lamb + gate A

Once upon a time many years ago as time is calculated by men there ~~There~~ was in Paradise, a most miserable, thoroughly unhappy, cherub who was known throughout Heaven as The Littlest Angel.

He was exactly four years, six months, five days, seven hours and forty-two minutes of age when he presented himself to the Gate-Keeper and waited for admittance to the Glorious Kingdom of God.

(1) scene one

Standing defiantly, with his short brown legs wide apart, the Littlest Angel tried to pretend that he wasn't at all impressed by such Unearthly Splendor, and that he wasn't at all afraid. But his lower lip trembled, and a tear disgraced him and fell down his already tear-streaked face and halted at the very tip end of his small freckled nose.

But that wasn't all. While the kindly Gate-Keeper was entering the name in his great Book, the L. A. having left home as usual without a handkerchief tried to hide the tell-tale evidence by snuffing. A most unangelic sound which so unnerved the good Gate-Keeper that he did something he had never done before in all Eternity. He blotted the page!

Black out-pause

From that moment on the Heavenly Peace was never quite the same, the L. A. soon became the despair of all the Heavenly Host. His shrill, ear-splittingwhistle resounded at all hours through the Golden Streets. On top of that he constantly sang off-key at the singing practice of the Heavenly Choir, thus spoiling its heavenly effect.

And being so small that it seemed to take him just twice as long as anyone else to get to nightly prayers, the L. A. always arrived late, and always knocked everones wings, while darting into place.

CHRISTMAS 1967

Good King Wenceslas--English Carol

Good King Wenceslas looked out
On the Feast of Stephen,
When the snow lay round about,
Deep and crisp and even;
Brightly shone the moon that night,
Tho' the frost was cruel,
When a poor man came in sight,
Gath-ring winter fuel.

Hither, page, and stand by me,
If thou know'st it, telling,
Younder peasant, who is he?
Where and what his dwelling?
Sire, he lives a good league hence,
Underneath the mountain:
Right against the forest fence,
By Saint Agnes' fountain.

Bring me flesh, and bring me wine,
Bring me pine-logs hither;
Thou and I will see him dine
When we bear them thither.
Page and monarch, forth they went,
Forth they went together;
Through the rude wind's wild lament
And the bitter weather.

Hark! the Hearld Angels Sing--English

Hark! the hearld angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King!
Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled."
Joyful, all ye nation, rise,
Join the triumph of the skies;
With th'angelic host proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem."
Chorus:
Hark! the hearld angels sing,
"Glory to the newborn King!"

Christ, by highest heav'n adored:
Christ the everlasting Lord:
Late in time behold Him come,
Off-spring of the favored one.
Veiled in flesh, the Godhead see;
Hail th'incarnate Deity
Pleased, as man with men to dwell,
Jesus our Immanuel!
Chorus:

Hail! the heav'nborn Prince of Peace!
Hail! the Son of Righteousness!
Light and life to all He brings,
Ris'n with healing in His wings.
Mild He lays His glory by,
Born that man no more may die:
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.
Chorus:

We Wish You a Merry Christmas-- English

We wish you a Merry Christmas,
We wish you a Merry Christmas,
We wish you a Merry Christmas
and a Happy New Year!

Good tidings we bring for you and your kin.
We wish you a Merry Christmas
and a Happy New Year!

God Rest You Merry, Gentlemen--English

God rest you merry, gentlemen,
Let nothing you dismay,
Remember Christ, our Savior
Was born on Christmas Day;
To save us all from Satan's pow'r,
When we were gone astray.

Chorus: O tidings of comfort and joy,
Comfort and joy,
O tidings of comfort and joy.

In Bethlehem, in Jewry,
This blessed Babe was born,
And laid within a manger,
Upon this blessed morn;
The which His Mother Mary,
Did nothing take in scorn.

Deck the Hall--Welsh

Deck the hall with boughs of holly,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
'Tis the season to be jolly,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.
Don we now our gay apparel,
Fa la, lala, la la la,
Troll the ancient Yuletide carol,
Fa la la la la, la la la la.

See the blazing Yule before us.
Strike the harp and join the chorus.
Follow me in merry measure.
While I tell of Yule tide treasure.

Fast away the old year passes.
Hail the new, ye lads and lasses.
Sing we joyous all together
Headless of the wind and weather.

O Christmas Tree--German

O Christmas tree, O Christmas Tree
O tree of green, unchanging. (Repeat)

Your boughs, so green in summer time,
Do brave the snow of wintertime.
O Christmas tree, O Christmas tree
O tree of green, unchanging.
